Yet, when it comes to our own games, attacking play can be a different story. What brilliant attackers seem to do effortlessly can be unimaginable to most chessplayers. In the book, Attacking Chess for Club Players, IM Herman Grooten (along with FM Petra Schuurman) seeks to bridge this gap. The authors aim to give readers a “behind the scenes look” at attacking play, breaking down even the most beautiful attacking games and combinations to the simpler elements behind them—so that ...
