A Little Closer to God’s Heart There is a way of valuing that transcends my personal desires or ambitions. When I find what is intrinsically present and intrinsically valuable in the other person, I get freedom from the limitations of my parochial desires. And in that moment, I find myself a little closer to God’s heart.

Closer - Bethel Live w/ Lyrics

God desires that our heart becomes one with His heart. When we think about having Jesus in our heart we sometimes think of Him as about three inches tall and we sometimes treat Him as such. People sometimes receive Jesus into their heart and then go on with their lives instead of living in His life.
