With the Old Breed: At Peleliu and Okinawa is a World War II memoir by Eugene Sledge, a United States Marine first published in 1981. The memoir is based on notes Sledge kept tucked away in a pocket-sized Bible he carried with him during battles he fought at Peleliu and Okinawa. The book formed part of the basis of the material covered by Ken Burns PBS documentary The War, as well as the HBO miniseries The Pacific, in which Sledge was portrayed by Joseph Mazzello.

With the Old Breed - Wikipedia
With the Old Breed is a deep pleasure...a stinging reminder of the sacrifices others have made to allow us to live the life that we do. If you can make it through without welling up at half a dozen spots, you are a stronger person than I...One of the themes...is the near impossibility of communicating the experience of combat to those who have not experienced it...[Sledge] takes us as close as we are likely to get.
